COMMODORE'S CORNER

Any fool can carry on, but a wise man knows how to shorten sail in time. Joseph Conrad

Ken McAllister has obtained a large metal cabinet suitable for holding charts. His idea is that members who have charts that they are not using can contribute them to the Club for general use. The charts will be stored in the cabinet, located in the Club's boathouse storage area. Members who are cruising can then borrow the Club's charts, rather than buying new ones. Members who have charts that they would like to contribute are encouraged to bring them to the July General Membership Meeting.

Our next cruise is the annual Bald Eagle Days trip to Cathlamet. If you're not signed up, please call Tom Norton at 967-2078. This event is always a lot of fun, since Cathlamet goes all out for their civic festival. Tom has reserved the guest dock for our use. This year marks LYC's 80th year. We are planning an anniversary celebration on Saturday, September 22. Gary Homme has volunteered to cook prime rib for the event. More on this later as the date gets closer. Our Standing Rules require that boathouse owners who wish to sell their boathouses shall first offer the sale to members by pub-

MATTERS OF THE HOUSE

Moorage— Bidding for boathouse space I - 5 is now closed. The House Committee will meet next week to finalize a recommendation to be presented at the next LYC board meeting.

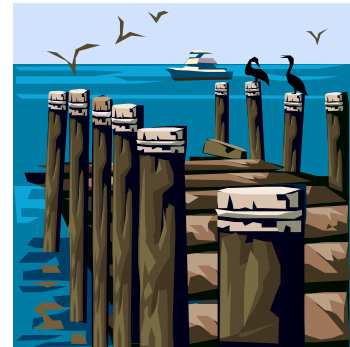

Open moorage space C - 8 is open for bid. This space will accommodate a boat with a maximum length of 50'. If you are interested in this spot please notify me via email (cprynne@comcast.net) or USPS to 1330 25th Ave. Longview, WA 98632.

House Report— We survived a very wet June 23 work party. Thanks to those that braved the elements. The next scheduled work party is July 14. This was changed from the original date of July 21 due to a conflict with the annual Bald Eagle Days celebration. We are looking for a volunteer to provide lunch for the August 25th work party. If you are willing let me know.

lishing the availability and asking price of the house in the monthly Newsletter. If you have a house for sale and have not yet had it listed in the newsletter, please contact Kat Pettersen with the details.

It finally looks like summer has arrived. Let's all have a safe and relaxing boating season.

AHOY SHIP MATES — A MESSAGE FROM YOUR SHIP'S STORE CLERK

I recently was made aware that the ship's store rack arrangement had been altered. This likely created confusion in instructions for ordering or purchasing. An inventory of the rack indicates one missing item – a red, size large, Port Authority All Season II hooded jacket. Would the member who is attempting to buy this jacket please contact me. The rack has been returned to its original arrangement so please..... shop, feel free to leave a helpful comment in the mailbox, and please don't alter the rack.

Thanks – Pam Myhr (360 -225-5741)

Schedule of Ladies Night Out

Sept/Oct? Willamette Yacht Club
 9/20/12 Multnomah Channel Yacht Club

Maritime Heritage Festival Returns July 13-15 with new location in St Helens

The fourth annual Maritime Heritage Festival runs from Friday July 13 to Sunday July 15th at the St Helens Public docks. (Marine visitors will need to tie up at the Sand Island docks.) Skippers and crews of “antique and classic” motorboats and other vintage and traditional power, sailing and rowing craft are invited to display their boats.

There will also be the Columbia River Flotilla & Water Parade from 2:30—4pm along the Multnomah Channel. The show will be open from 10am to 4pm on Saturday and Sunday. Vintage boats of all kinds, Native American canoes, and larger vessels like the WWII veterans LCI713 and PT 658, and the steam-powered tug Portland will be open for tours.

There is a modest fee for boats to participate, but the festival will be free to the public.

It is produced by the Maritime Heritage Coalition and its partners. All proceeds from your participation will benefit the Maritime Heritage Coalition and supports its goal to build a regional maritime center that aspires to be the “Mystic Seaport of the West.”

Boat owners interested in participating should email cfinks@finksinc.com or phone 360-576-4046. For updates, look for The Maritime Heritage Coalition on Facebook.
