COMMODORE'S CORNER

A special "Thank You" to Debbie and John Lee for the fantastic job of Chairing the Commodore's Ball for a second year in a row. The theme was "Putting On The Ritz" and that was what was done. A great time was had by all!

My kudos to Past Commodore Cal for his emotional tribute to his wife Marjory, for all her sacrifices and wonderful support during her two-year term as First Lady.

Looking ahead to the coming year, Mark McCrady continues to work towards securing the Yacht Club's aquatic lease. Meanwhile, the Board voted to place the Dock Re-alignment Project on hold until the DNR Lease is finalized.

As in-coming Commodore, I look forward to working with the new Board to tackle the issues that may surface in the future. I/we will do our best to insure your Yacht Club experience is as pleasant as possible. Assisting this year, will be: Jammie Scott, Social Chair, Jerry Norton, Cruise Director, and Ray Prynne, House Chair. Let's all do our part in stepping forward to assist them if asked.

MATTERS OF THE HOUSE

MOORAGE MATTERS:

Boat house spaces D - 4 and H - 9 were open for bid during the month of January. Space D - 4 has been assigned to Dave Erickson and space H - 9 has been assigned to Bruce Blackstone. At this time there are no open moorage spaces or boat house spaces available. Please notify me when / if you have any plans of vacating or selling your assigned space. in either of these spaces please notify me via email (crprynne@comcast.net) or USPS (1330 25th AVE. Longview)

HOUSE MATTERS:

Information for adding flotation to members' boathouses has been sent to 2 Deep Diving. We are "on their schedule" and at this time I do not have any specific time frame as to when they will actually be here. I have had 5 members contact me to have them check their boat houses. If you want to add your name to the list please contact me.
